means a savings association (as defined in 12 U.S.C. 1813(b)) that:

- (1) maintains its principal office in Indiana; and
- (2) has a mutual form of ownership.

Sec. 5. As used in this chapter, "voting parties" means the depositors or members of a mutual savings association.

Sec. 6. For purposes of this chapter, voting parties have the voting rights as provided in the applicable corporate governance documents of the converting mutual savings association.

Sec. 7. With the approval of the department, a mutual savings association may convert into a credit union under this chapter.

Sec. 8. (a) The department shall prescribe procedures for the conversion of a mutual savings association into a credit union under this chapter.

(b) The procedures prescribed by the department must include the following:

- (1) The savings association must prepare and submit to the department a conversion plan that provides the terms and conditions required by the department for the conversion of the mutual savings association into a credit union.
- (2) The conversion plan must be adopted by not less than a majority of the board of directors of the savings association.
- (3) Upon approval of the conversion plan by the board of directors of the savings association, the conversion plan and a certified copy of the resolution of the board of directors approving the conversion plan must be submitted to the department for approval.
- (4) The conversion plan must be conditioned on the approval of not less than a majority of the total number of votes eligible to be cast at a regular or special meeting of the voting parties. The director of the department must approve the method used to notify the voting parties of the meeting held to consider the conversion plan. The director of the department may require the converting savings association to provide the voting parties with information regarding the conversion plan.
- (5) The savings association must provide to the department additional relevant information requested by the department regarding the conversion plan.

Sec. 9. (a) The department may approve or disapprove a conversion plan filed under section 8 of this chapter.

(b) The department is not required to hold a hearing on the conversion plan.

(c) Solicitation of the votes of voting parties may occur before the savings association receives the department's approval of the conversion plan.

Sec. 10. The department may not approve a conversion plan unless the department finds, after appropriate investigation or examination, all of the following:

- (1) That the resulting credit union will operate in a safe, sound, and prudent manner.
- (2) That the proposed credit union conversion will not result in a credit union that has inadequate capital, unsatisfactory management, or poor earnings prospects.
- (3) That the management or other principals of the savings association are qualified by character and financial responsibility to control and operate the proposed credit union in a legal and proper manner.
- (4) That the interests of the depositors, creditors, and public generally will not be jeopardized by the proposed credit union conversion.

Sec. 11. At the effective time of the conversion of a mutual savings association into a credit union under this chapter, the resulting credit union:

- (1) possesses all of the rights, privileges, immunities, and powers of a credit union;
- (2) unless otherwise provided in this chapter, is subject to all of the statutes, rules, duties, restrictions, obligations, and liabilities of a credit union;
- (3) succeeds by operation of law to all rights and property of the converting savings association;
- (4) is subject to all debts, obligations, and liabilities of the converting savings association as if the credit union had incurred the debts, obligation, and liabilities; and
- (5) may retain the borrowers and depositors of the converting savings association as members of the credit union.

Sec. 12. The department may authorize the credit union resulting from a conversion under this chapter to do the following:

- (1) Wind up any activities that the savings association was legally engaged in at the effective time of the conversion but that otherwise are not permitted to credit unions.
- (2) Retain for a transitional period any assets that the savings association legally held at the effective time of the conversion but that otherwise may not be held by credit unions.

The terms and conditions of the winding up of activities under subdivision (1) and the retention of assets under subdivision (2) are subject to the discretion of the department. However, the transitional period during which activities may be carried out under subdivision (1) or assets may be retained under subdivision (2) may not exceed ten (10) years after the effective time of the conversion.

Sec. 13. A credit union resulting from a conversion under this chapter may retain all branches lawfully established.

Sec. 14. (a) A savings association converting into a credit union under this chapter shall file with the secretary of state the articles of conversion showing the approval of the director of the department.

(b) The converting savings association shall record copies of the articles of conversion with the county recorder of the county where the principal office of the credit union will be located.

(c) The articles of conversion constitute articles of incorporation of the resulting credit union and must set forth the elements required in IC 28-7-1-1(b).

Sec. 15. Upon the effective time of the conversion, the converted credit union is subject to all statutes and rules applicable to credit unions.

Sec. 16. The department may adopt rules under IC 4-22-2 or policies to implement this chapter.

SECTION 2. IC 28-1-21.12 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE AS A NEW CHAPTER TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2002]:

Chapter 21.12. Charter Conversion of a Mutual Savings Bank Into a Credit Union

Sec. 6. As used in this chapter, "voting parties" means the:

- (1) depositors; and
 - (2) borrowers;
- of a mutual savings bank.

Sec. 7. With the approval of the department, a mutual savings bank may convert its charter under this chapter.

Sec. 8. (a) The department shall prescribe procedures for charter conversions under this chapter.

(b) The procedures prescribed by the department must include the following:

(1) The mutual savings bank must prepare and submit to the department a conversion plan that provides the terms and conditions required by the department for a charter conversion under this chapter.

(2) The conversion plan must be adopted by not less than a majority of the board of directors of the mutual savings bank.

(3) Upon approval of a plan of charter conversion by the board of directors of the savings bank, the conversion plan and a certified copy of the resolution of the board of directors approving the conversion plan must be submitted to the department for approval.

(4) The conversion plan must be conditioned upon the approval of not less than a majority of the total number of votes eligible to be cast at a regular or special meeting of the voting parties. The director of the department must approve the method used to notify the voting parties of the meeting held to consider the conversion plan. The director of the department may require the converting mutual savings bank to provide the voting parties with information regarding the conversion plan.

(5) The mutual savings bank must provide to the department the additional relevant information requested by the department in connection with the conversion plan.

Sec. 9. The voting parties of a mutual savings bank have the voting rights set forth in IC 28-13-6-2 with respect to a charter conversion of the mutual savings bank under this chapter.

Sec. 10. (a) The department may approve or disapprove the conversion plan filed under section 8 of this chapter.

(b) The department is not required to hold a hearing on the conversion plan.

(c) Solicitation of the votes of voting parties may occur before the mutual savings bank receives approval of the department if the

1 director of the department has reviewed the proxy solicitation
2 material and has notified the mutual savings bank in writing that
3 the department does not object to use of the material.

4 Sec. 11. The department may not approve the conversion plan
5 unless the department finds, after appropriate investigation or 6 examination, all of the following:

7 (1) That the resulting credit union will operate in a safe,
8 sound, and prudent manner.

9 (2) That the proposed charter conversion will not result in a
10 credit union that has inadequate capital, unsatisfactory
11 management, or poor earnings prospects.

12 (3) That the management or other principals of the mutual
13 savings bank are qualified by character and financial 14 responsibility to control and operate the proposed credit
15 union in a legal and proper manner.

16 (4) That the interests of the depositors, the creditors, and the 17 public generally will not be jeopardized by the proposed
18 charter conversion.

19 (5) That the proposed membership of the resulting credit
20 union will comply with the membership requirements of 21 IC 28-7-1-10.

22 Sec. 12. At the effective time of a charter conversion under this
23 chapter, the resulting credit union:

24 (1) possesses all of the rights, privileges, immunities, and
25 powers of a credit union;

26 (2) unless otherwise provided in this chapter, is subject to all
27 of the statutes, regulations, duties, restrictions, obligations,
28 and liabilities of a credit union;

29 (3) succeeds by operation of law to all rights and property of 30 the converting mutual savings bank;

31 (4) is subject to all debts, obligations, and liabilities of the 32 converting mutual savings bank as if the credit union had 33 incurred the debts, obligations, and liabilities; and

34 (5) may retain the borrowers and depositors of the converting
35 mutual savings bank as members of the credit union.

36 Sec. 13. The department may authorize the credit union
37 resulting from a charter conversion under this chapter to do the 38 following:

39 (1) Wind up any activities that the mutual savings bank
40 legally engaged in at the effective time of the charter
41 conversion but that otherwise are not permitted to credit
42 unions.

1 (2) Retain for a transitional period any assets that the mutual
 2 savings bank legally held at the effective time of the charter
 3 conversion that otherwise may not be held by credit unions.
 4 The terms and conditions of the winding up of activities under
 5 subdivision (1) and the retention of assets under subdivision (2) are 6 subject to the discretion of the department. However, the 7 transitional period during which activities may be carried out
 8 under subdivision (1) or assets may be retained under subdivision
 9 (2) may not exceed ten (10) years after the effective time of the 10 charter conversion.

11 Sec. 14. A credit union created by charter conversion may retain 12 all branches lawfully established.

13 Sec. 15. (a) To effect a charter conversion, the converting
 14 mutual savings bank must file with the secretary of state articles of 15 charter conversion showing the approval of the director of the 16 department.

17 (b) The converting mutual savings bank shall record copies of 18 the articles of charter conversion with the county recorder of the 19 county where the principal office of the credit union will be 20 located.

21 (c) The articles of charter conversion constitute articles of 22 incorporation of the resulting credit union and must set forth the 23 elements required in IC 28-7-1-1(b).

24 Sec. 16. Upon the effective time of a charter conversion, the 25 converted credit union is subject to all statutes and rules applicable
 26 to credit unions.

27 Sec. 17. The department may adopt rules under IC 4-22-2 or 28 policies to implement this chapter.
